INTRODUCTION

The Board of Elections (“Board”) has revised the Campaign Finance Manual to provide candidates, officeholders and committees with the most recent changes in campaign finance law and guidance on how to comply with campaign finance disclosure and filing requirements set forth in the Rhode Island Campaign Contribution and Expenditures Reporting Act (“Act”). [See 17-25].

This manual is designed to serve as a resource for campaign finance requirements. The Board has made every effort to ensure the accuracy of the information in this publication, but is not liable for errors or omissions of content. Where your legal rights are involved, do not rely on this manual. Instead, review the law yourself or consult your attorney.

If you have any problems or questions not resolved by this manual, please call a member of the campaign finance staff at (401) 222-2345; meet with a member of the campaign finance staff in person; or e-mail the Board at campaignfinance@elections.ri.gov.

For the most up-to-date version of this manual and all forms, please visit the Rhode Island Board of Elections website at www.elections.ri.gov.
1.0 PERSONS AND ENTITIES SUBJECT TO THE CAMPAIGN FINANCE LAWS

1.1 Candidates, Political Action Committees and Political Party Committees

Rhode Island state law requires all candidates for public office, political action committees and political party committees to file periodic reports of campaign contributions and expenditures, even if for such a period, contributions and expenditures shall equal zero. The method by which these contributions and expenditures are reported is determined by the amount of funds raised or expended.

1.1.1 Candidate

A Candidate is defined as any person who undertakes any action whether preliminary or final, which is necessary under the law to qualify for nomination for election or election to public office. This would include receiving any contribution or making any expenditure or giving consent for any other person to receive a contribution or make an expenditure to bring about a nomination or election to any public office even if such office is unknown at that time. A person may be considered a candidate for public office even though such person has not declared himself or herself to be a candidate for public office. [§17-25-3(a); 17-25-11]

For the purposes of the Act, this shall not include candidates for political party offices, which shall mean a state, city, town, ward, representative or senatorial district committee office of a political party, or a delegate to a political party convention or any similar office, but shall include a candidate who has been elected to public office. [§17-25-3(h)], but shall include a candidate who has been elected to public office.

Withdrawal or termination of candidacy does not relieve the candidate from keeping accurate records and making necessary reports through the time of termination of candidacy or dissolution of the fund, whichever is the later. [§17-25-3(a); 17-25-7; 17-25-11]

1.1.2 Political Action Committee

A Political Action Committee (PAC) is any group of two (2) or more persons who accepts any contributions to be used for advocating the election or defeat of any candidate or candidates. Only PACs that have accepted contributions from fifteen (15) or more persons in amounts of ten dollars ($10.00) or more within an “election cycle” shall be permitted to make contributions, and said PACs must make contributions to at least five (5) or more non-Federal RI candidates within the same “election cycle”. [See §17-25-3(10)]
• The term “election cycle” means the twenty-four (24) month period commencing on January 1 of odd number years and ending December 31 of even number years; provided, however, with respect to the public financing of election campaigns of General Officers, under §17-25-19; §17-25-20 and §17-25-25, “election cycle” shall mean the forty-eight (48) month period commencing on January 1 of odd number years and ending December 31 of even number years. [See §17-25-3(5)]

1.1.3 Political Party Committee
The term Political Party Committee shall mean each state and municipal committee of a political party. A state committee of a political party includes the state committee of each political party and each senatorial and representative district committee. A municipal committee of a political party includes the city and town committees of each political party and each ward committee. [See § 17-12; 17-1-2(6)]

1.2 Persons Not Acting In Concert With Any Other Person Or Group-Independent Expenditures
Independent expenditures made by any “person” not otherwise prohibited by law and not acting in concert with any other person or group that exceed one hundred dollars ($100.00) within a calendar year to support or defeat a candidate, are required to be reported by the person making such independent expenditure to the Board of Elections by filing a “Schedule of Independent Expenditures” (Form CF-8) and to the campaign treasurer or deputy treasurer of the candidate or political party committee on whose behalf the expenditures were made within seven (7) days of making such expenditures. There is no limitation on the amount that a person, not acting in concert with any other person or group, may expend personally from such person’s own funds to support or defeat a candidate. [See § 17-25-10(b)]

• “Person” means an individual, partnership, committee, association, corporation, and any other organization. [See §17-25-3(9)]

Note: Please refer to the “Ballot Question Advocacy and Reporting” Summary Guide for guidance on how to comply with campaign finance disclosure and filing requirements set forth in the Rhode Island Ballot Question Advocacy and Reporting Act. [See §17-25.2]
2.0 DUTIES OF A CANDIDATE

2.1 Notice of Organization
Each candidate shall file a “Notice Of Organization” (Form CF-1) with the Board of Elections upon filing his or her declaration of candidacy or before receiving a contribution or making an expenditure in furtherance or aid of his or her candidacy, \textit{whichever occurs first}. [See §17-25-8]

The Notice of Organization shall contain:
- The name of the candidate
- Key # (if already assigned by the Board of Elections)
- Street and mailing addresses
- Contact information
- Office sought (if known at the time)
- Party affiliation, if any
- The name, address, contact information and signature of the appointed or designated campaign treasurer or deputy treasurer, signed in the presence of a notary public
- An affidavit, signed by the candidate in the presence of a notary public, in which said candidate agrees to abide by the campaign finance laws of the State of Rhode Island and the Rules and Regulations established by the Board of Elections.

2.2 Appointment or Removal of Treasurers
A candidate may appoint or remove a campaign treasurer or deputy treasurer at any time. Each time a candidate appoints or removes a campaign treasurer or deputy treasurer, he or she shall file a new “Notice of Organization” (Form CF-1) with the Board of Elections indicating the amendment. [See §17-25-8]

A candidate may be his or her own treasurer or deputy treasurer. A candidate may also appoint multiple deputy treasurers. The names and addresses of these campaign treasurers shall also be filed on the “Notice of Organization” (Form CF-1). However, a candidate who fails to designate a campaign treasurer on the “Notice of Organization” (Form CF-1) shall be deemed to be the treasurer by the Board of Elections. A person may also serve as the campaign treasurer or deputy treasurer for one or more candidates. [See §17-25-8]

In the event of the death, resignation or removal of a campaign treasurer, the candidate must appoint a successor as soon as practicable and shall file a new “Notice of Organization” (Form CF-1) with the Board of Elections within ten (10) days. If a candidate fails to file the appropriate “Notice of Organization” (Form CF-1) within the time frame prescribed by law, the board shall immediately deem the candidate to be the campaign treasurer until said “Notice of Organization” (Form CF-1) is received by the Board. [See § 17-25-8(c)]

2.3 Responsibilities of a Candidate

Notwithstanding the appointment of a campaign treasurer, a candidate shall be responsible for any contributions accepted or expenditures made on behalf of his or her organization, as well as for any reports required to be filed or the contents and supporting documentation of the reports filed with the Board of Elections. Further, the candidate shall bear full responsibility for the activities of his or her campaign and the campaign’s treasurer and deputy treasurer(s), including the payment of fines, fees or penalties. [See §17-25-13(c)]

The candidate shall bear full responsibility for notifying the Board of Elections of any changes of address by amending its “Notice of Organization” (Form CF-1), and that the failure to inform the Board of said change(s) shall not absolve the candidate of his or her responsibilities under the law or rules of the Board.

2.4 Candidates and the Rhode Island Ethics Commission

The general assembly established an independent non-partisan Ethics Commission that adopted a code of ethics including, but not limited to, provisions on conflict of interest, confidential information, use of position, contracts with government agencies and financial disclosure. All elected and appointed officials and employees of the state and local government, of boards, commissions and agencies are subject to the code of ethics. The Ethics Commission has the authority to investigate violations of the code of ethics and to impose penalties, as provided by law; and the Commission has the power to remove from office officials who are not subject to impeachment.

2.4.1 Candidate Financial Disclosure-Rhode Island Ethics Commission

In addition to the filing requirements for candidates pursuant to the Rhode Island Campaign Contributions and Expenditures Reporting Act, candidates for elective public office, except those candidates for moderator and clerk of a voting district of the cities and towns, must file a “Financial Disclosure Statement” (Form FS-1) with the Rhode Island Ethics Commission within thirty (30) days of filing declaration of their candidacy. The Commission shall grant an extension for good cause shown of not more than fifteen (15) days, provided a request for an extension is received prior to the filing deadline for the Financial Disclosure Statement. [See §36-14-16 (c)]
The Ethics Commission will forward Financial Disclosure Statement Forms to each new candidate shortly after the candidacy filing deadline.

The failure to file a Financial Disclosure Statement by a state or municipal elected or appointed official is a violation of the law and may subject the official to penalties, including fines.

The filing of the Financial Disclosure Statement with the Ethics Commission is independent of any requirements imposed upon candidates by other governmental agencies.

Additional information regarding Financial Disclosure is available on the Ethics Commission website, www.state.ri.us/ethics, or by contacting the Commission.
3.0 DUTIES OF A POLITICAL PARTY COMMITTEE

3.1 Notice of Organization

Each state and municipal committee of a political party shall, on or before January 31 in each calendar year, designate or reaffirm a Chairperson and Treasurer and shall file a “Notice of Organization” (Form CF-1) with the Board of Elections documenting their names and addresses. [See §17-25-9(a)]

The Notice of Organization shall contain:
- The name of the Political Party Committee
- Key #
- Street and mailing addresses
- Contact information
- The name, address, contact information and notarized signature of the appointed, designated or reaffirmed Treasurer or Deputy Treasurer

3.2 Appointment or Removal of Treasurers

The campaign treasurer of a political party committee may appoint deputy campaign treasurers as may be required. The political party committee shall file a “Notice of Organization” (Form CF-1) with the Board of Elections documenting the names and addresses of all appointed deputy treasurers. [See §17-25-9(b)]

A political party committee may remove at any time its campaign treasurer. In the case of death, resignation or removal of its campaign treasurer, any committee shall appoint a successor as soon as practicable and file a “Notice of Organization” (Form CF-1) with the Board of Elections documenting his or her name and address within ten (10) days of said appointment. [See § 17-25-9(c)]

3.3 Annual Report

Each state and municipal committee of a political party shall file with the Board of Elections, not later than March 1 of each year, an annual “Summary of Campaign Activity” (Form CF-2) setting forth in the aggregate all contributions received and all expenditures made during the previous calendar year, whether or not these expenditures were made, incurred, or authorized in furtherance of the election or defeat of any candidate. The treasurer of the committee or organization reporting shall certify to the correctness of each report. [See §17-25-7(b)]
4.0 DUTIES OF A POLITICAL ACTION COMMITTEE (PAC)

4.1 Notice of Organization

No Political Action Committee shall accept any contributions nor make any expenditure prior to filing its “Notice of Organization” (Form CF-1) with the Board of Elections. [See §17-25-15(a)]

The “Notice of Organization” shall contain:

1. The proposed name of the committee
2. The mailing address or addresses of the committee
3. The name, address, contact information and notarized signature of the appointed or designated treasurer or deputy treasurer
4. An affidavit signed by the Chairperson in the presence of a notary public, in which said Chairperson agrees to abide by the campaign finance laws of the State of Rhode Island and the Rules and Regulations established by the Board of Elections
5. The names and addresses of all officers of the committee
6. The identity of any candidates or offices whose election or defeat the committee intends to advocate
7. The goals and purposes of the committee, and
8. A statement indicating whether the membership and/or contributor base of the committee is derived primarily from the employees of one corporation or business entity or from one business or professional group or association or labor union, and, if so, the identity of that employer or group or association or union.

If a political action committee derives more than fifty percent (50%) of its funds from the employees, officers, directors, investors, and/or stockholders of a corporation or other business entity, the name of the political action committee must incorporate the name of that corporation or entity. [See 17-25-15(e)]

Likewise, if a political action committee derives more than fifty percent (50%) of its funds from persons affiliated with one industry, profession, trade organization or association, or labor union, the name of the political action committee must identify that industry, profession, trade organization or association, or labor union. [See §17-25-15(e)]

No political action committee shall advocate the election or defeat of any candidate other than that set forth in its “Notice of Organization” (Form CF-1), or amendment to the notice. A political action committee may amend its “Notice of Organization” (Form CF-1) at any time. [See §17-25-15(b)]

The Board of Elections may reject the use by a political action committee of a name that is misleading and/or does not accurately identify the membership or contributor base of the committee. [See §17-25-15(d)]
4.2 Appointment or Removal of Treasurers
Each political action committee shall appoint one treasurer before receiving any contribution or expending any money for the purpose of advocating the election or defeat of any candidate. [See §17-25-8.1(a)]

A committee may appoint or remove a Treasurer or Deputy Treasurer at any time. Each time a committee appoints or removes a Treasurer or Deputy Treasurer, a Notice of Organization (Form CF-1) shall be filed with the Board of Elections indicating the amendment. [See §17-25-8.1(b); §17-25-8.1(c)]

In the event of death, resignation or removal of a Treasurer or Deputy Treasurer, a successor must be appointed as soon as practicable and the committee shall file a new Notice of Organization (Form CF-1) within ten (10) days of the change. [See §17-25-8.1(c)]

5.0 DUTIES OF CAMPAIGN TREASURERS

5.1 Record Keeping
The treasurer or deputy treasurer, as indicated on the “Notice of Organization” (Form CF-1), must file with the Board of Elections reports of contributions received and expenditures incurred in furtherance of the nomination or election of a candidate, and must continue to file reports of contributions received and expenditures incurred following the election, so long as campaign funds remain and the campaign has not filed an “Affidavit Dissolving Campaign Account” (Form CF-7) with the Board of Elections.

The campaign treasurer of each candidate seeking nomination for election or election to public office, and the treasurer of each political action committee and political party committee, shall maintain and preserve all records and supporting documentation for a period of four (4) years, commencing with the date the affidavit, notice, or report was filed. [See §17-25-11.1(a); §17-25-11.1(b)]

5.1.1 Depository Account
For all candidates, officeholders, political party committees and political action committees, the name of the depository (i.e. Bank, Credit Union) used to deposit campaign receipts and pay campaign expenses must be identified on the organization’s “Notice of Organization” (Form CF-1). In the event the depository changes, the Board of Elections must be notified via a new “Notice of Organization” (form CF-1) within ten (10) business days of the change. The accounting of campaign receipts and expenditures must be kept separate and distinct from any other receipts and expenditures.
5.2 Who May Receive Contributions or Expend Funds

No contribution shall be made or received, and no expenditures shall be directly made or incurred, to support or defeat a candidate except through the duly appointed campaign treasurer, or deputy campaign treasurer(s), of the candidate, political party committee, or political action committee. [See §17-25-10]

5.3 Resignation of a Treasurer or Deputy Treasurer

A treasurer or deputy treasurer of any campaign or committee may resign his or her position by filing a letter of resignation directly with the Board of Elections. In this case, the Board shall, within two (2) business days of the receipt of said letter, notify the candidate, or in the case of a political action committee or political party committee, the chairperson, of the treasurer’s resignation. The candidate, political action committee or political party committee shall appoint a successor as soon as practicable and file a “Notice of Organization” (Form CF-1) with the Board of Elections documenting the new treasurer’s name and address within ten (10) days of said appointment.
6.0 CAMPAIGN FINANCE REPORTS & SCHEDULES
The Rhode Island Campaign Contributions & Expenditures Reporting Act (“Act”) requires that treasurers of candidates, political action committees and political party committees file reports of campaign activities with the Board of Elections (“Board”) in accordance with a reporting schedule prescribed herein. [See §17-25-11]

6.1 Persons Authorized To File
Regardless of whether a report is submitted and received at the Board, any report that is signed by someone other than the person(s) designated on the “Notice of Organization” (Form CF-1) on file at the Board shall be returned to the candidate and deemed not filed.

Persons filing “Declarations of Candidacy” during the June 28-30 declaration period, and who have NO on-going campaign, the Reporting Period begins with the Date of Declaration and ends August 16, if participating in a Primary, with the Report Due By August 17.
A Campaign Finance Report generally consists of a “Summary of Campaign Activity” (Form CF-2); a “Schedule of Contributions Received” (Form CF-3) and a “Schedule of Expenditures” (Form CF-4).

Unless specified otherwise by a Filing Schedule put forth by the Board of Elections, the On-Going Quarterly reports are due no later than the last day of the month next following the end of the reporting period. Provided, however, if the last day of the month falls on a weekend or a holiday, the report shall be due the following business day. In a contested election, reports required to be filed before and after the primary and election are due by the date next following the end of the reporting period. [See §17-25-11(c)]

Political action committees and political party committees are required to file On-Going reports at ninety (90) day intervals [See §17-25-11(a)(1)], provided however that a political action committee or political party committee contributing to a candidate or candidates in a contested election are deemed to be participating in said election and are thereby required to file reports in accordance with the filing schedule for candidates in an election, commencing with the first reporting period in which the contribution to the candidate or candidates in a contested election was made. [See §17-25-11(a)(2)]

Note: For campaigns involved in a special or off-year election in 2010, please contact the Board of Elections or visit our web site at http://www.elections.ri.gov for the appropriate reporting schedule.

6.4a Annual Filing Exemption

Notwithstanding the reports detailed above, the treasurer for a candidate or officeholder, political action committee or political party committee may elect to file an “Affidavit For Annual Filing Exemption” (Form CF-5), whereby said treasurer certifies that he or she will accept no contributions in excess of one hundred dollars ($100.00) in the aggregate from a single source within the calendar year, including contributions or loans that a candidate may make to his or her own campaign, nor make aggregate expenditures in excess of one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) within the calendar year. If this affidavit is filed, the treasurer is exempt from filing the scheduled periodic or quarterly reports of campaign contributions and expenditures. [See §17-25-11(e)]

The “Affidavit For Annual Filing Exemption” (Form CF-5) must be filed by the due date of the first report scheduled for a campaign.
The campaign treasurer shall file a summary Campaign Finance Report for 2010, due by January 31, 2011, consisting of a “Summary of Campaign Activity” (Form CF-2), a “Schedule of Contributions Received” (Form CF-3) and a “Schedule of Expenditures” (Form CF-4) to report all campaign contributions and expenditures for the entire calendar year.

However, any campaign, having been dissolved, but whose officeholder subsequently raises or expends funds to hold or maintain his or her elected office, must be reactivated by filing a new “Notice of Organization” (Form CF-1), and must file campaign finance reports, commencing with the period in which campaign funds were raised or expended.

Moreover, any campaign having completed its business and having no remaining campaign funds will, nonetheless be considered “Active”, and required to file campaign finance reports according to a Reporting Schedule prescribed by the Board of Elections, until such time as an “Affidavit Dissolving Campaign Account” (Form CF-7) is filed by its treasurer. [See §17-25-11(c)]

Any campaign filing an “Affidavit Dissolving Campaign Account” (Form CF-7), shall, as a result, forgive as uncollectible any Loans Payable or Accounts Payable balance remaining at the time of dissolution, regardless of whether said campaign account is subsequently re-activated. (Note: Any accounts payable balance outstanding at the time a campaign is dissolved shall become the personal obligation of the candidate.)

The value of an allowable in-kind contribution counts towards the aggregate annual contribution limits specified herein. However, there shall be no restriction on the amount of in-kind contributions a political party committee or political party committees may make to a candidate of that political party. However, for the purposes of this section, the cost and preparation and airing of television and/or radio advertisements and the cost of any print advertisements shall not be considered an allowable “in-kind” contribution and shall be subject to the aforementioned aggregate limitation of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000.00). [See §17-25-10.1(e)]

9.4.3.2 Donor Required To Notify Recipient Of Value Of In-Kind Contribution
Expenditures made by any person in cooperation, consultation or concert with, or at the request or suggestion of, a candidate, the candidate’s authorized political committees, or their agents shall be considered to be a contribution to the candidate [See §17-25-10.1(c)]. The person is required to notify the recipient candidate or committee of the value of said in-kind contribution. However, it is the responsibility of the candidate or committee to make their “best effort” to obtain the correct value of an in-kind contribution.

9.4.4 Loan
A loan shall be considered a contribution of money until it is repaid. There shall be no restriction on the amount of money that a candidate can borrow under his or her own name, and subsequently contribute or loan to his or her own campaign. [See §17-25-10.1(g)]

9.4.5 Other
Other types of transactions by which a campaign may receive or report contributions include Interest Received, Refunds or Rebates, Other Receipts and Aggregate.

9.5 Contribution Types
For the purpose of this section, contribution types include: a contribution from an individual; a contribution from a political action committee or political party committee; aggregate contributions from individuals, political action committees or political party committees; loan proceeds; in-kind contributions from an individual, political action committee or political party committee; interest received; refunds and rebates; other receipts and matching public funds.

To demonstrate “best efforts”, the treasurer must be able to show:

1. The campaign requested the required information in the solicitation materials that prompted the contribution, and

If the contributor does not respond to the follow-up request, but the campaign possesses information in its contributor records, fundraising records or prior reports filed during the same election cycle, then the committee may use that information when disclosing the contribution.

If the requested information is not received until after the contribution has been reported on a “Summary of Campaign Activity” (Form CF-2) and “Schedule of Contributions Received” (Form CF-3) for a reporting period prescribed by the Board, the treasurer must report the information by filing an amended “Schedule of Contributions Received” (Form CF-3) for that same reporting period.

Note: Listing a contributor’s occupation or reporting a contributor as self-employed does not meet the requirement of reporting the contributor’s place of employment, unless accompanied by the address of employment.

9.5.2 Aggregate/Individual

Each treasurer of a candidate, political action committee and political party committee shall be required to disclose on a “Schedule of Contributions Received” (Form CF-3) all contributions received NOT in excess of a total of one hundred dollars ($100.00) from any individual, political action committee and political party committee within a calendar year.
