All rates include $25.00 for attending a mandatory training class conducted by the Board of Elections on a separate date prior to the primary or election.

A meal might only be provided once on election day (i.e breakfast) or the local board may issue a stipend instead. Check with the local Board of Canvassers for details.

If you are receiving unemployment benefits, pollworker wages must be reported to the RI Department of Labor and Training. Contact the RIDLT for additional information.
